Financial Services and General Government

Discretionary FundingBillions of Dollars

Key Provisions

- The bill provides $222.5 million for Treasury departmental offices.
- The bill provides $117 million for the Office of Terrorism and Financial Intelligence in the Treasury Department.
- $233.5 million is provided for the Community
  Development Financial Institutions Fund (CDFI) to serve persistent poverty counties and underserved rural communities.
- The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is provided $11.235 billion, with all increases dedicated to measurable improvements in customer service and security. The bill also includes language prohibiting new regulations to determine the status of 501(c)(4) organizations.
- The bill provides $871 million for the Small Business Administration (SBA).
- $125 million is provided for the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), and also prohibits completion of CPSC rules related to recreational off-highway vehicles
- The bill provides $384 million for the Federal Communications Commission (FCC)
- $272 million is provided for the Office of Personnel Management, including $21 million for IT security improvements

For more details, view the full reports available from the House and Senate Appropriations Committees.

Sources: House Appropriations Committee; Senate Appropriations Committee.