

House GOP Retreat in Baltimore Puts Forth Two Major Proposals for Replacing ObamaCare

House GOP ObamaCare Replacement Bills

Name	Committee	Committee Chair	Plan Summary
Empowering Patients First Act	House Budget Committee	Bill Flores (R-TX)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Establishes a refundable tax credit for health insurance coverageProvides a $1,200 credit for people between ages 18-35, $2,100 for people between ages of 35-50 and $3,000 for people 50 and olderProvides a $1,000 tax credit for contributions to health savings accounts and gives federal grants to states to provide health coverage to high-risk groups of people
American Health Care Reform Act	Republican Study Committee	Tom Price (R-GA)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Aims for competition among insurance plans by allowing people to shop for plans across state linesCreates $15 billion fund for researching diseases like heart disease and Alzheimer's

Source: Alexander Bolton, "Election-Year Rift Opens in GOP," The Hill, January 19, 2016.