

Clinton Narrowly Leads Sanders in Iowa Caucus

State Delegates Awarded to Candidates, Iowa Democratic Caucus

Analysis:

- The votes tallied represent the estimated number of state convention delegates that the candidates would have, based on the Feb. 1 precinct caucus results
- No delegates are awarded to the national convention as a result of the precinct caucuses; the state's delegates will be elected at district caucuses and at the state convention later in the year
- After the results, Martin O'Malley dropped out of the race
