

Ryan's "A Better Way" for Economy Focuses on Reducing Power of Big Government

Speaker Ryan's Policy Agenda for the Economy

Regulate smarter

Ensure the rules that are made are efficient and effective and small businesses are protected from disproportionate impacts

Affordable and reliable energy

Produce U.S. energy resources responsibly, end delays of projects and jobs

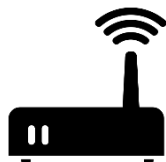

Crack down on lawsuit abuse

Reform the system to develop protections for small businesses and consumers

End bailouts and promote financial independence

End Wall Street bailouts and ensure hard workers are rewarded for their work

Preserve Internet innovation

Establish clear rules that are consumer-friendly for the FCC and its regulatory powers

Put students and workers first

Minimize bureaucratic processes to make it easier for Americans to excel in school and at work

Sources: "A Better Way, Our Vision for a Confident America: The Economy," Office of Speaker of the House, June 14, 2016; Jack Fitzpatrick, "Ryan's Energy Policy Agenda Requires A Republican White House," Morning Consult, June 14, 2016; NounProject, Andrew Doane, Gayatri, Thomas Uebe, Phil Laver, Mike Ashley, Edward Boatman.