

This Week: Congress Recess & President Obama Heads to Atlanta

Outlook, Week of August 1, 2016:

Monday,
Aug 1

- The US Chamber of Commerce holds a discussion on Singapore's economic and trade priorities
- Senator Barbara Mikulski (D-MD) holds a media availability following a tour on the flood damage in Ellicott City, MD

Tuesday,
Aug 2

- The Securities and Exchange Commission holds a meeting of the Equity Market Structure Advisory Committee on updates from the four subcommittees

Wednesday,
Aug 3

- The National Governors Association's Center for Best Practices holds a briefing on "The Future of Medicaid Transportation: A Practical Guide for States"
- The National Defense Industrial Association holds its Global Explosive Ordinance Disposal Symposium and Exhibition

Thursday,
Aug 4

- Environmental Protection Agency holds a meeting of the Science Advisory Board's Environmental Economics Advisory Committee to review its draft report on mortality risk valuation estimates for policy analysis
- The Institute of World Politics holds a lecture on "A Multi-Pronged Analysis of the Causes and Effects of the Coup in Turkey"

White House Agenda:

- On Monday, President Obama goes to Atlanta to deliver remarks at the 95th National Convention of Disabled American Veterans
- On Monday, the Vice President will hold a conference call with college presidents to discuss It's On Us.

\ This schedule was updated on Monday August 1, 2016. It is not exhaustive and is subject to change.*

Sources: The White House, "What's Happening," August 1, 2016; National Journal Daybook, 2016.