

Of the 23 Republicans who serve in districts that Clinton won in 2016, 14 voted yes on the AHCA, and 9 voted no

How Republicans in Clinton-won districts voted on the AHCA

No votes (9)
Representative (District)	Clinton margin
Mike Coffman (CO-6)	8.9%
Barbara Comstock (VA-10)	10%
Ryan Costello (PA-6)	0.6%
Will Hurd (TX-23)	3.4%
John Katko (NY-24)	3.4%
Leonard Lance (NJ-7)	1.1%
Pat Meehan (PA-7)	2.3%
Dave Reichert (WA-8)	3%
Ileana Ros-Lehtinen (FL-27)	19.7%

Yes votes (14)
Representative (District)	Clinton margin	Representative (District)	Clinton margin
John Culberson (TX-7)	1.4%	Dana Rohrabacher (CA-48)	1.7%
Carlos Curbelo (FL-26)	16.1%	Peter Roskam (IL-6)	7%
Jeff Denham (CA-10)	3%	Ed Royce (CA-39)	8.6%
Darrell Issa (CA-49)	7.5%	Pete Sessions (TX-32)	1.9%
Steve Knight (CA-25)	6.7%	David Valadao (CA-21)	6.7%
Martha McSally (AZ-2)	4.9%	Mimi Walters (CA-45)	5.4%
Erik Paulsen (MN-7)	9.4%	Kevin Yoder (KS-3)	1.2%

Sources: Dan Merica, "How Republicans from Clinton-won districts voted on health care," CNN, May 4, 2017; Ben Mathis-Lilley, "Here are the 14 vulnerable Republican 'Yes' AHCA voters we'll all be watching in 2018," Slate, May 4, 2017.