

Department of Housing and Urban Development

Discretionary budget authority

Billions of US dollars

Key provisions

- The budget proposes eliminating the Choice Neighborhoods program, which would result in a reduction of $125 million
- The budget proposes eliminating the Community Development Block Grant program, generating savings of $2.9 billion for fiscal year 2018
- The Native American Housing Block Grant program would be cut by $48 million under the proposal while the Indian Community Development Block Grant would be eliminated
- The HOME Investment Partnerships Program would be eliminated, saving $948 million for fiscal year 2018
- The budget calls for reform of HUD’s rental assistance programs, resulting in a reduction of $2 billion in funding for 2018

For more details, download the full budget here.

Sources: Office of Management and Budget, “A new foundation for American greatness,” May 23, 2017.