

Trump administration requests $9 billion in budget cuts to the Education Department

Trump’s proposed cuts to the Department of Education budget

Fiscal year 2018; millions of dollars

- In total, the White House has requested a $9.2 billion cut to the Education Department
- The Supporting Effective Instruction program funds teacher training and reduces class sizes
- The budget also calls for the creation of a single income-driven student loan repayment plan, accompanied by a decrease of $1.69 billion in spending
- The budget calls for $81 million to be transferred from mandatory Pell grant funding to year-round Pell grants

Source: National Journal research.