

The White House issued 19 ethics waivers related to lobbying and former employers

Waivers that apply to the entire Executive Office

	Name	WH title	What waiver is for
	All appointees in the Executive Office of the President	Senior Advisor, Advisor, Chief Strategist, All other appointees	Communications with former employers that are news agencies (This is interpreted as allowing Stephen Bannon to communicate with his former employer Breitbart News and Jared Kushner to communicate with the New York Observer , which he owns)
	All WH commissioned officers	Assistant to the President, Deputy Assistant to the President, Special Assistant to the President	Communications with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Donald J. Trump for President, Inc.</li><li>• The RNC</li><li>• The NRCC</li><li>• NRSC</li><li>• Republican Governor’s Association</li><li>• Republican Attorneys General Association</li></ul>

Sources: “Waiver Certifications for WHO/OVP Employees,” May 31, 2017, White House.

The White House issued 19 ethics waivers related to lobbying and former employers

Waivers that apply to Trump’s legal team and former lobbyists

	Name	WH title	What waiver is for
Former Jones Day employees	Don McGahn	Counsel to the President	Communications with Jones Day related to their legal representation of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• President Trump</li><li>• DJT for President, Inc.</li><li>• Trump for America, Inc.</li><li>• The RNC</li><li>• Trump Victory Committee</li><li>• Make American Great Again Committee</li></ul>
	Gregory Katsas	Deputy Counsel
	Ann Donaldson	Special Counsel and Chief of Staff to the WH Counsel
	James Burnham	Senior Associate Counsel
	David Morrell	Associate Counsel
	Blake Delaplane	Special Assistant to the WH Counsel
Former lobbyists	Michael Catanzaro	Special Assistant to the President	Participating in energy-related policy deliberations as well as policies regarding WOTUS, the CPP, RFS and methane regulations
	Shahira Knight	Special Assistant to the President	Participating in tax, retirement, and financial services related policies including SIFI, FIRPTA, MEPs, HSAs, and tax reform
	Andrew Olmem	Special Assistant to the President	Contacting former financial clients he lobbied for on Puerto Rico’s debt; participating in policy deliberations on financial regulations
	Joshua Pitcock	Assistant to the President and Chief of Staff to the Vice President	Contacting his former lobbying client, the state of Indiana; participating in a broad array of policy issues on which he lobbied

Sources: “Waiver Certifications for WHO/OVP Employees,” May 31, 2017, White House.

The White House issued 19 ethics waivers related to lobbying and former employers

Waivers that apply to individuals who were not lobbyists

	Name	WH title	What waiver is for
	Reince Priebus	Chief of Staff	Communications with the RNC
	Rene Augustine	Special Assistant to the President and Clearance Counsel	Participating in vetting of presidential appointees that might have ties to her hedge fund investments
	Kellyanne Conway	Assistant to the President	Communications with any former client which is a political organization, advocacy organization, trade association, or non-profit organization
	Daniel Epstein	Associate Counsel	Working on issues related to his former employer Cause of Action Institute and the lawsuits they filed
	Charles Herndon	Director of the WH Office of Information Technology	Participating in matters involving CSRA, Inc., his former employer, except for issues involving DISA
	Christopher Liddell	Assistant to the President and Director of Strategic Initiatives	Participating in matters that might affect his wife’s diversified trust fund
	Claire Murray	Associate Counsel	Communicating with her former employer, Kirkland & Ellis LLP, except on issues she directly worked on

Sources: “Waiver Certifications for WHO/OVP Employees,” May 31, 2017, White House.