

Week of Sept. 4: Congress back in session with tight deadlines, Trump makes final DACA decision

Outlook for Congress:

Tuesday

Sept
5

- The House and Senate both gavel back in for regular sessions
- Senate Minority Whip Dick Durbin and Sen. Lindsey Graham deliver remarks on their bipartisan DREAM Act legislation (3 PM)
- House Rules Committee meeting to formulate rules for the Department of Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, the legislative vehicle for the remaining appropriations bills (4:00 PM)

Wednesday

Sept
6

- Senate Commerce, Science and Transportation Committee hearing on “Risk of Waste in the FCC’s Lifeline Program” (10:00 AM)
- Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee hearing on the “U.S. Health Care System” (10:00 AM)
- House Education and the Workforce Committee hearing on “The Sharing Economy” (10:00 AM)
- Senate HELP Committee hearing on “Stabilizing Premiums and Helping Individuals in the Individual Insurance Market for 2018” (10:00 AM)
- Senate Foreign Relations Committee hearing on “Priorities and Challenges in the U.S.-Turkey Relationship” (10:30 AM)

Thursday

Sept
7

- Senate HELP Committee hearing on “Stabilizing Premiums and Helping Individuals in the Individual Insurance Market for 2018” (9:00 AM)
- Senate Finance Committee hearing on “The Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP): The Path Forward” (10:00 AM)
- House Homeland Security markup of several security-related bills (10:00 AM)

Outlook for the White House:

- Tuesday, the president released his final decision on the DACA program, ordering the Justice Department to wind it down over a period of six months
- In the afternoon, President Trump will meet with his National Economic Council before speaking with the congressional leaders about tax reform and other matters on his agenda
- Wednesday, the president will travel to North Dakota to deliver a speech on tax reform at an oil refinery outside Bismarck