

Members of Congress representing major pharmaceutical companies

House of Representatives

September 6, 2017

Producer

Daniel Stublen

Director

Alistair Taylor

Major pharma companies in the Midwest are represented by Democrats

Rep. Andre Caron (D)
IN-07: Indianapolis

Lilly

Eli Lilly & Company
Total federal spent:	$603,500
Total donated to candidate:	$10,000

Rep. Brad Schneider (D)
IL-07: North Chicago Suburbs

abbvie

AbbVie Inc.
Total federal spent:	$686,250
Total donated to candidate:	$0*

 Abbott

Abbott Laboratories
Total federal spent:	$669,625
Total donated to candidate:	$0*

 astellas

Astellas US
Total federal spent:	$241,500
Total donated to candidate:	$5,000

- Both AbbVie and Abbott donated $10,000 to Rep. Bob Dold (R) in 2016

- Rep. Schneider narrowly beat out incumbent Rep. Bob Dold, who had previously beaten Schneider in 2014

Rep. Pallone was the only Tri-State Democrat representing major pharma companies to receive the maximum donation

Rep. Bonnie Watson
Coleman (D)
NJ-12: Princeton, NJ

Novo Nordisk
Total federal spent:	$453,351
Total donated to candidate:	$5,000

Rep. Frank Pallone, Jr. (D)
NJ-06: New Brunswick, NJ

Johnson & Johnson
Total federal spent:	$494,500
Total donated to candidate:	$10,000

Rep. Carolyn Maloney
(D)
NY-12: Manhattan, NY

Pfizer
Total federal spent:	$987,150
Total donated to candidate:	$0

Bristol-Myers Squibb

Bristol-Myers Squibb
Total federal spent:	$409,375
Total donated to candidate:	$0

Boehringer
Ingelheim

Rep. Jim Himes (D)
CT-04: Ridgefield, CT

Boehringer Ingelheim Corp
Total federal spent:	$212,000
Total donated to candidate:	$7,500

Unlike fellow NJ Republican Rep. Frelinghuysen, Rep. Lance received maximum donations from his 3 major pharma firms

Rep. Rodney
Frelinghuysen (R)
NJ-11: Morristown, NJ

Novartis
Total federal spent:	$271,750
Total donated to candidate:	$4,500

Actavis/Allergan
Total federal spent:	$157,000
Total donated to candidate:	$0

Bayer
Total federal spent:	$477,000
Total donated to candidate:	$7,500

Merck & Co.
Total federal spent:	$569,750
Total donated to candidate:	$10,000

Sanofi
Total federal spent:	$557,975
Total donated to candidate:	$10,000

Celgene
Total federal spent:	$216,500
Total donated to candidate:	$10,000

Rep. Leonard Lance (R)
NJ-07: Clinton Township, NJ

Democrats representing major pharma companies in the Mid-Atlantic have not received maximum funds from pharma

Rep. Lisa Blunt
Rochester (D)
DE-AL: Delaware

AstraZeneca
Total federal spent:	$525,500
Total donated to candidate:	$2,500

Rep. John Delaney (D)
MD-06: Gaithersburg

AstraZeneca
Total federal spent:	$525,500
Total donated to candidate:	$4,500

Rep. Robert Brady (D)
PA-01: South Philly/Del. Co.

GlaxoSmithKline
Total federal spent:	$431,000
Total donated to candidate:	$0

Rep. Brendan Boyle (D)
PA-13: Montgomery Co.

Teva Pharmaceuticals
Total federal spent:	$177,000
Total donated to candidate:	$5,000

Sources: National Journal Research, 2017; OpenSecrets.org, 2017

Bay-Area pharma companies donate regularly to their Democratic representatives

Rep. Julia Brownley (D)
CA-26: Westlake Village

Amgen
Total federal spent:	$962,000
Total donated to candidate:	$6,000

Rep. Jackie Speier (D)
CA-14: San Mateo

Gilead Sciences
Total federal spent:	$120,500
Total donated to candidate:	$7,500

Roche/Genentech
Total federal spent:	$383,500
Total donated to candidate:	$10,000