

Daniel Best

Biography

Daniel Best was appointed as Senior Advisor to the Secretary for Drug Pricing Reform in April. He joins the Department of Health and Human Services from CVSHealth's Medicare Part D program where he was the Corporate Vice President of Industry Relations. Before CVS, Daniel Best was the Vice President of Strategic Development at Universal American and the Director of Business development at Pfizer Pharmaceuticals. He has an MBA from Wharton, a masters from Johns Hopkins University, and a Bachelor's degree from Dayton University

Professional Experience

- CVSHealth Medicare D, Vice President of Industry Relations
- Universal American, Vice President of Strategic Relations
- Pfizer Pharmaceuticals, Director of Business Development

Contact

HHS Headquarters
330 C ST SW Washington, DC
Phone: (877) 696-6775

“Daniel Best recognizes what President Trump and I, and every American know: prescription drug prices are too high. He has the deep experience necessary to design and enact reforms to lower the price of medicines that help Americans live healthier and longer lives.

- Secretary Azar, Department of Health and Human Services