

Supreme Court nomination and confirmation statistics

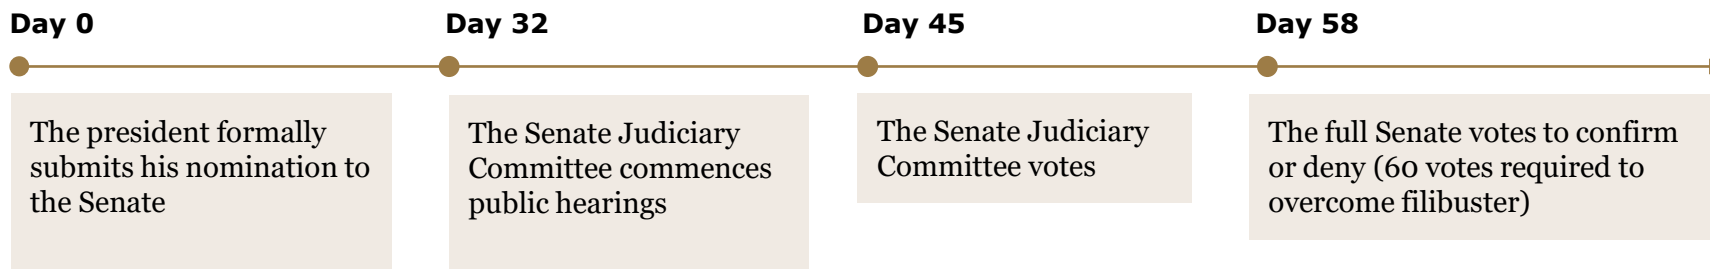

Since the Johnson administration:

- 3 nominees have been rejected by a full Senate vote
- 3 nominees have been withdrawn by the president
- 4 times cloture has been invoked
 - 3 successful: Alito, Rehnquist and Gorsuch for associate justice positions
 - 1 unsuccessful: Rehnquist for chief justice (vote later allowed under unanimous consent and confirmed)
- 1 nominee never withdrawn or voted upon in the Senate (Garland)

28 nominations since 1965

Timeline for last 19 confirmed justices (average, excluding Gorsuch)

Sources: Denis Rutkus and Maureen Beardon, "Supreme Court Nominations, 1789 to the Present: Actions by the Senate, the Judiciary Committee, and the President," Congressional Research Service, December 7, 2012.