

One-third of states have not expanded Medicaid coverage for lower-income residents

Status of Medicaid expansion by state

■ Expanded Medicaid ■ Have not expanded Medicaid

- Medicaid costs approximately $570 billion per year, and the federal government sponsors ~90% of that amount
- Under the ACA, states may choose to expand Medicaid for adults who earn below $16,750 per year (or $34,640 for a family of four)
- Approximately 20% of US residents receive Medicaid benefits

Sources: Ricardo Alonso-Zaldivar, "Study: Without Medicaid expansion, poor forgo medical care," Associated Press, October 15, 2018.

Low-income adults in non-expansion states are more likely to face economic barriers to health care

Percentage of low-income Americans ages 19-64 who...

GAO AND NATIONAL CENTER FOR HEALTH STATISTICS (2016 DATA)

■ Expansion states ■ Non-expansion states

Sources: Ricardo Alonso-Zaldivar, "Study: Without Medicaid expansion, poor forgo medical care," Associated Press, October 15, 2018.